

RUEGER AND BROCKWELL SET FAST PACE AT TRAPS

West End Shooters Find It Difficult to Keep Up With Leaders—Final Shoot Next Saturday

L. Rueger and Dr. Brockwell set such a fast pace at the West End traps yesterday that the other men had no more chance to head them off than a primrose in the Arctic Circle would have of blooming in January. When they came under the wire, nose and nose in a dead heat, they were heartily congratulated.

The club had as their guest W. S. Cutler, of Chicago, who stopped over a day just for the pleasure of shooting here. Mr. Cutler has not missed a shot since he came to the club and he is a club member. He does not know a club member who has made greater improvement in his shooting, and says he gets trimmer and worse each year by the time he has used up five years of membership.

Bob Jones and Bob Cabell dined with Rueger and Brockwell at the club yesterday. They were not able to get up to the front table. Mike Weisger and McGrath entertained a Class A man, Mr. Egan, at the table near the middle of the hall, while Billy Rueger, Jr., and Jack Haderick ate crow down near the back of the room.

A large attendance is expected at Saturday to hear the announcement by the handicap committee as to how the finals will be shot off. The committee has had to make a few changes, which they wish the club to pass upon.

Summary:

Class leaders: A—L. Rueger and Dr. Brockwell; runners-up, Brockwell, Hammond, Jr., and Jernan; B—Hammond, Sr.; runner-up, McGrath; C—Weisger; runner-up, Egan.

WAKE FOREST IS WINNER

Gullford Holds Baptists Scoreless During First Half, But Weakens in Last—Score, 20 to 0

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WAKE FOREST, N. C., October 13.—After allowing the visitors to hold them scoreless during the first two quarters of today's game, Wake Forest came back strong in the second half, and, through long and runs and straight line plunges, defeated Gullford College, 20 to 0.

Gullford smashed the Baptists' line at will during the first half and made five first downs. Only the good defensive work of Rabenhorst, Sowers and Bowers prevented the Quakers from marching up the field for a touchdown.

Wake Forest showed a complete reversal of form during the third quarter, and, with the first minute of play, tore off a run around left end for fifty-five yards and a touchdown. Later, Pruett, in one of the prettiest runs of the game, brought the ball to the three-yard line and Rabenhorst carried it over a long forward pass to Rabenhorst in the final quarter netted the locals their final score.

For Wake Forest, Rabenhorst featured.
